Report: NSS Unit of Mier College of Education organised 7 day Special NSS camp from 16-24 February, 2024, with the aim of sensitizing NSS volunteers. The theme of the camp was “ Rural Reconstruction and Ecological Development”. The camp was held under the guidance of Principal Prof. Adit Gupta and Dr Komal Sharma, NSS Programme Officer.

Around fifty volunteers from the different departments of the college participated in the camp. A thorough effort was made to develop the personality of the volunteers through community service. The volunteers were made aware of the objectives of NSS and the purpose behind organising the camp. All seven days began with a serene morning prayer, setting a positive and peaceful tone for the day ahead and afterwards the NSS volunteers engaged in a refreshing yoga session on daily basis, embracing the power of mindfulness and physical well-being. Shram Daan was performed on daily basis where participants engaged in a voluntary contribution of physical efforts towards a noble cause. A number of activities were held in adopted villages Purkhoo and Domana during the camp such as awareness programme on disability by using mass media, sensitization of local people, students and staff of the govt school in adopted village Purkhoo by the NSS Volunteers on the theme ‘ importance of voting in Democracy ‘, street play on the theme ‘Misuse of Social Media’ , display of posters on the theme ‘Eradication of Social Evils: Drug Addiction and Alchoholism’ in Domana Village .They also ran an environment cleanliness drive in Domana Village as well as another cleanliness drive was organized, outside MIER College of Education, around KC Chowk and the vegetable market, where all the participants actively participated in maintaining the cleanliness of the camp premises as well as the surroundings. In the spirit of environmental consciousness, all volunteers participated in a waste segregation and disposal activity. Various methods such as rainwater harvesting, usage of solar lights and the usage of 5 star ACs, which is promoted in the college campus was explained and showcased. A skit was performed by the volunteers portraying the importance of waste segregation. For the well being and good health of the volunteers various sports activities were also undertaken such as Badminton, Kho- Kho match and Tug of War in the college playground.

Prof Adit Gupta, Principal and Director, Mier College of Education was the Chief Guest for the valedictory function organised to culminate the NSS Seven Day NSS Special camp-2024 . The volunteers presented a vibrant cultural programme that included a Sarasvati Vandana, NSS song, skit on the theme “Rural Reconstruction and Ecological Development “, video presentation on camp activities, and group folk dances such as Dogri, Kashmiri and Laavni. A comprehensive report showcasing the activities conducted on each day was presented by Dr. Komal Sharma, Programme Officer NSS . Chavi, Arya and Shivangi shared their experiences and reflections of the camp. Cerificates were awarded to the achievers of Poster making competition wherein First and Second prize was bagged by Shivangi Raj Metla of B.Ed Semester III and Azra Khatoon of B.Ed.Spl. Semester III , Ridham Sharma of B.Ed.Sem III won third prize and Kanureet of B.A.Psychology Honors achieved Consolation prize. Speaking on the occasion,

Prof Adit Gupta, appreciated the efforts of the volunteers in organising different social activities and exhorted the volunteers to abide to the motto of NSS "Not Me But You". An NSS volunteer places "community before self" as the philosophy of life. As an NSS volunteer, one imbibes different values, appreciates the dignity of labor, and works towards giving back to the community. HODs of School of Education and School of Social Sciences and Humanities also congratulated the NSS volunteers on the successful completion of the camp. Arzoo Sharma and Ananya conducted the valedictory programme, welcome speech was given by Ashiya and a formal vote of thanks was given by Miss Sonika Kumari, Member, NSS Unit.
